ITEM 1

Blast Furnace

25X1A

CDR. Dankworth, JRC, requested that some analysis of the accomplished quickly from the standpoint of giving further guidance to the collection elements deployed there.

25X1D

It was determined that this analysis should be done by the Technical Working Group as rapidly as possible. Further, the Chairman of the TWG was advised to work directly with the Chairman of the Collection Guidance Working Group

Announcements/Discussions

ITEM 2 A memo recommending establishment of an Anti-Missile Working Group, with SIC participation, was handed out and briefly discussed. Telephone comments were requested.

ITEM 3 A limited distribution proposed reply to USIB on ABMs was flagged for action, but not for the next meeting.

ITEM 4 A handout on work for NIE 11-4-61 was discussed briefly. The SAM portion was to be discussed informally under sponsorship of the Army. GMAIC will meet on any possible changes on 3 October 1961.

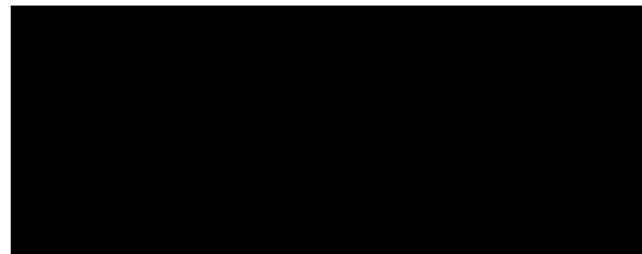

ITEM 5
25X1A It was agreed that the Terminology Working Group, now chaired by [REDACTED] should be continued, and be chaired by whomever Bill thought best. [REDACTED] is the new Chairman. Bill did a fine job and the Committee expressed its appreciation.

25X1A

ITEM 6 It was decided that no schedule of briefings by the various participants on their thinking/analysis should be undertaken -- that the Working Group should bring up a subject when they thought it worthwhile to talk about.

ITEM 7 It was agreed Tuesday would be our planned meeting day, vice Wednesday.
